Monday night the workmen at the Wheeling steel plant resumed work. The puddlers at the Benwood mill have also gone to work.

Now-a-days the Back river is almost constantly lined with fishermen, and most of them have good luck. Perch is the main catch.

YESTERDAY afternoon O. M. Davis, an employe at the Etina-Standard mill, was kicked in the mouth by a mule. The physicians put several stitches in his lip.

Last evening Councilman James A. Elian quit the saloon business with a grand blow-out at which everything was free. It is needless to say he was well patronized. He says his expenses are $8 a day and his receipts for some time have averaged $2, and he thought it was cheaper to quit.

ALBINI's London entertainers, who were announced to open at the Grand to-morrow evening, have by rare good luck been secured by Manager Feinler for this evening, so that their first appearance will be made to-night. The company is sufficiently well known to need no eulogium. It includes the Arab troop from the Midway Plaisance.

The railroads have cut freight rates to a net in a terrific way. Rates to New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been reduced 60 cents per ton, to take effect on and after the 21st. This applies to steel billets and blooms, but the rates are proportionately reduced on other products of iron and steel. This ought to help trade eastward.

An effort having recently been made by certain parties in Martin's Ferry, doubtless at the instigation and request of certain other parties there, who are actuated by a spirit of persecution, to arrest Miss Maggie Wharton upon a charge of insanity, this attempt having been given publicity in the newspapers at the time, has done Miss Wharton a great injustice, and she, to establish her sanity and refute the charges, has been examined, and has secured the certificates of three reputable physicians of this city, testifying that the charges have no foundation in fact. Further persecution will make the parties liable to prosecution.

MID-AIR CABLE.

Estimates Expected by the Projectors. The Knoxville Line.

The mid-air cable project mentioned in the INTELLIGENCER several weeks ago is by no means dead, neither is it sleeping. Plans were sent to a New York company, the Lidgerwood people for estimates from plans and specifications furnished by the local people interested which were prepared by Engineer Gilmore Brown. These estimates are expected soon, and upon them rests the future of the project. As one of the projectors said yesterday: "If the estimates given us by the Lidgerwood company are anywhere near what we have been led to expect, the company to build the line over the Ohio will at once be formed, and we have no fear that not enough stock will be subscribed. We have already had many applications for stock."

The following regarding a mid-air cable line similar to the one projected here, is taken from the Scientific American:

"A wire rope tramway for passenger car service over the Tennessee river at Knoxville, and which is suspended at a height of 350 feet above the water as it reaches the south side of the river, has been in practical use for some time past, passengers being conveyed thereby to a pleasure resort back of the bluff on the other side of the river from the city of Knoxville. The starting point of this suspended railway is only about five minutes ride by street cars from the center of the city, and here is a power house where are two twenty-horse power engines which operate the hauling cable. The tramway cables are each 15 inches in diameter and the length of the span is 1,000 feet. These cables on the Knoxville side are anchored to 12x12 inch oak timbers, fourteen feet long, placed behind plank bulkheads. The connecting bars are 12 feet long and 1 1/2 inches thick, and provision is made for taking up the slack by means of long threaded screws. The anchor at the high end, on the opposite side of the river, consists of iron plates fixed in the rock. The supporting cables each have a breaking strain of sixty tons. The cable conveying the motive power is one-half inch in diameter and permanently fastened to the car. The car empty weighs 1,200 pounds, has a fourteen foot body, six feet wide, 6 1/2 feet high, and has a seating capacity of sixteen passengers. The car is provided with automatic brakes, which stop the car in case the hauling cable breaks. The trip takes about three and a half minutes, and the descent is made in a half minute by gravity.

"An accident occurred on this aerial ferry on Sunday, February 18, by which one passenger was killed and two others slightly injured. The hauling cable broke just as the car reached the top of the incline, and struck the car with such force as to damage it slightly, the car then starting rapidly down the grade until it was stopped by the automatic brakes. When the car was brought to a standstill it was about 200 feet above the water and the eight passengers it contained were rescued by being let down by ropes into a boat on the river.

At Clerk Hook's Office.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued a marriage license to Frederick L. Mueller, a widower, aged 44, and Augusta Jaehneke, divorced, aged 34, both of Wheeling.

Frederick C. Drichorat was appointed administrator of the estate of Frances E. Thoner, deceased, with the will annexed, and gave bond in $2,500 with Edward W. Schaefer as surety.

Catherine Fisher qualified as executrix of the will of James Fisher, deceased, and gave bond in $300, without surety, none being required by the terms of the will.

Amalgamated Association Convention.

Yesterday a district delegate meeting of the Amalgamated Association was held in the parlors at the Stamm House. The proceedings were secret, and so closely guarded was the meeting that none of the delegates registered at the hotel. The matters up for consideration, however, had reference to the wage scale, and especially to certain limited contracts which expire April 1.

In Police Cycles.

In the police court yesterday morning James Bennett, a plain drunk, was let go on promising to leave town.

John Coleman was arrested by Officer West yesterday for whipping his wife.

Henry Stratten, a drunk, was put in by Officer Moran into last night.

Summer Weather Continues.

This is certainly the most marvelous March weather on record. Yesterday the thermometer got as high as 85 in the shade, which would be warm for July. Last evening a light shower fell for a short time, but the rain did not amount to much.
